

Title of Document		REMOTE WORK POLICY-ADDEDNUM
Applicable Company Kennedia Consulting		Document Number	Revision 1	Issue Date
APPROVAL	Name	Job Title/ Role	Signature	Date
Document Owner	Ebele Chigbo	HR Manager		21-Jul-2023
Approved by	Akin Osikomaiya	Director Operations		23-Jul-2023
Approved by	Lotanna Uzoka	Managing Director		01-Aug-2023

1. POLICY OBJECTIVES

- 1.1 Kennedia Consulting recognizes that employees are its most valuable resource and is committed to creating a secure working environment for them. KCL will promote equity, fairness, and respect in the treatment of employees.
- 1.2 Kennedia Consulting currently considers working remotely required whilst we try to adjust to the new cost of living. As such, the Remote Work policy has been created to assist employees in balancing work responsibilities and personal life. Employees are encouraged to utilize the Remote Work policy as a guide for balancing work and personal life.
- 1.3 The Remote Work policy contains the rules, practices and procedures for employees who work remotely, i.e. from locations other than the company's designated offices.
- 1.4 Acceptance of this Remote Work policy does not alter your duties, obligations, responsibilities and/or conditions of employment with Kennedia Consulting unless otherwise stated.
- 1.5 This policy shall be applicable to any member of staff who is duly notified in writing from the HR department to work remotely. Kennedia Consulting may also determine the duration of the remote work by issuing a letter or a mail from the HR department without recourse to the relevant member of staff.

2. SCOPE

- 2.1 This policy applies to all employees of Kennedia Consulting. It is non-contractual and may be amended at any time at the discretion of the company.

3. PURPOSE

- 3.1 This policy is intended to provide guidance and good practice to enable employees to work remotely and safely.

4. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- 4.1 It is the responsibility of Line Managers and team members to always ensure efficient and prompt delivery of clients' request.

5. COMPLIANCE WITH COMPANY POLICY

- 5.1 Employees are required to comply with this policy and all company rules, guidelines, and policy.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY OF COMPANY INFORMATION

- 6.1 Employees working remotely are reminded that regardless of their work location, they are bound to keep office information highly confidential.
- 6.2 Employees will be expected to ensure the protection of proprietary company and customer information accessible from any location they may be working. Steps include:
- Keep all passwords protected.
 - Get a folder, file, or secure place for the storage of sensitive information within your allocated workspace.
 - Refrain from downloading suspicious, unauthorized, or illegal software.

- Do not use free or public Wi-Fi for work.

7. REMOTE WORK SCHEDULE AND GUIDELINES

- 7.1 Employees will work from Tuesday or Wednesday (depending on the day your name appears on the schedule) and on Thursday, our general remote working day. In the case of public holidays, there will be no extensions or carryover or merging of days.
- 7.2 Employees should always be available to attend any company meetings from their remote work locations.
- 7.3 Employees working remotely must observe all meeting etiquette like dressing appropriately, avoid noisy environments and other distractions, stretch breaks for long meetings, and avoid eating while talking or during meetings.
- 7.4 Employees are not allowed to travel on remote workdays unless there is an emergency. Rather request for your leave so the company is aware of your whereabouts. Otherwise, it will be seen as absconded.
- 7.5 Employees are not allowed to change client meeting dates to suit them because you are working remotely.
- 7.6 Employees must be accessible during work hours and must respond to clients call(s) promptly without delay. Any employee who fails to comply will be sanctioned accordingly.
- 7.7 If any employee comes in for any task or meeting on their designated remote workday, there will be no change of remote workday.

8. DESIGNATED WORK AREA

- 8.1 Employees working remotely are required to work in a convenient workspace. To ensure maximum productivity while working remotely, employees shall:
 - Choose a quiet and organized work environment that is void of distractions.
 - Ensure they have a good internet connection.
 - Adhere to their remote work schedule regarding attendance, work hours and meetings.
 - Dedicate their time and attention strictly to Kennedia Consulting during designated working hours.

9. WORK TOOLS AND EQUIPMENT

- 9.1 The company will provide the necessary work tools and equipment required for the job. In particular, the employee will be provided with a laptop. Company-required software will be installed when employees receive their laptop. Secondary equipment (e.g. printers and scanners) will not be provided. Employees who require such equipment will have to work in the office to have access to them.
- 9.2 All equipment provided remains the company's property and employees must keep them in good condition.
- 9.3 Employees should use secure password(s) on their devices and ensure that the IT Unit is promptly notified if the device is lost.
- 9.4 While working from a designated workspace, if any employee experiences technical issues with his or her computer or the internet that prevent the employee from working remotely, the employee must notify his or her manager immediately. Interruptions to work caused by internet outages may require the employee to work from their regular office space for the remainder of the day, or until the outage is fixed.
- 9.5 Employees must maintain confidentiality of all company information while working remotely.

10. WORK FROM MEETINGS AND COMMUNICATION CHANNELS

- 10.1 Kennedia shall continue to hold online meetings and make use of either Microsoft Teams or Zoom for all meetings except advised otherwise.
- 10.2 Other communication channels include emails, phone calls and WhatsApp. All employees are advised to check all communication channels promptly to mitigate complaints.
- 10.3 Check all devices to ensure they are working appropriately at least 10 –15 minutes before the meeting and be available on time.
- 10.4 Employees are advised to use of earpiece when attending online meetings for the sake of confidentiality of information shared in such meetings especially when working in shared spaces with other people who are not employees of Kennedia Consulting.

- 10.5 Employees are required to turn on their videos for all meetings and KD sessions while working remotely except authorized by the meeting chairperson.

11. PRODUCTIVITY OF REMOTE WORKERS

- 11.1 Line Managers are to ensure that tasks and deliverables of their teams are effectively communicated, documented, and monitored.
- 11.2 Monitoring deliverables and the general productivity of employees will be the responsibility of all Line Managers.
- 11.3 Employees must ensure Microsoft Planner and all relevant applications are installed and active on their devices across the company effective immediately.
- 11.4 Line Managers are expected to assign tasks and agree timelines on a weekly/monthly basis with remote workers.
- 11.5 Emphasis is placed on the productivity of employees rather than hours of work. However, employees are required to be available in the prescribed environment during normal office hours for work.
- 11.6 Excuses for lack of essential resources needed to carry out tasks will not be tolerated.
- 11.7 A Line Manager may require an employee working remotely to work from the office in the instance where consistent inefficiency due to remote working can be established.

12. MODIFICATION OF THIS POLICY

- 12.1 The company reserves the right to modify this policy from time to time. If any change is made, employees will be notified accordingly.
- 12.2 By signing this document, you acknowledge that you have reviewed this Remote Work Policy and agree to the terms.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I (----- NZERE MICHAEL OKAFOR -----) acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Remote Work Policy read the contents, I hereby agree to abide by it at all times. I understand that the Remote Work Policy represents current Kennedia policy, and that the company retains the right to change or rescind the Remote Work Policy at any time as the company deems necessary.

Name: NZERE MICHAEL OKAFOR

Signature:

Date: 30/05/2026

Kennedia Consulting Limited

